

CFL Discord: Teen Guidelines

based off of San Antonio Public Library's 210teenlibrary Discord server guidelines.

created: 8.9.2023

Here at CFL, we don't want to stifle your creativity or teen interact on the Discord server, but we do want make sure that this server is a safe library space for all teens (ages 13 through 18). To do this, we ask that you keep the following guidelines in mind while on the server.

1. By joining, using, participating, and remaining on this server, you confirm that you are currently a teen (ages 13-18).

- Access to this server is by invite only through this form:
<https://forms.gle/Ng7dkVsDqf1Awxg28>

2. Remember to be kind, courteous, and respectful to all.

- Please let Youth Services Librarian, Rose Slike, know if you feel uncomfortable with something that is taking place or has taken place on this server.
- Messages sent anywhere on this server should only include appropriate, harmless, and nondisruptive content, links, or files.
- Be nice. No one likes haters.
- You are free to block or report anyone on this server that makes you feel uncomfortable or is sending inappropriate, harmful, and disruptive content, links, or files. If someone does send these types of materials to you, please screenshot them and contact Rose Slike immediately.

3. Keep your personal information safe.

- This is a safe space BUT please still use caution and never share things like your full name or address.
- Remember what you put on the internet stays
- Online does not equal private. Please don't post anything you don't want anyone else to see.

4. Post spam on the spam channel.

- #spam exists for a reason; if an appropriate message is random but does not meaningfully contribute to other conversations, please post the message in #spam

5. Self-promotion is okay, but selling anything is not.

- #self-promo is all about sharing your Twitch stream, YouTube channel, Instagram account, etc.
- In #self-promo you can share pictures of your artwork, designs, work, etc.
- The library is not the place to sell things.

Additional Information:

- This server abides by Discord's Community Guidelines: <https://discord.com/guidelines>
- For any questions, comments, or concerns please direct message YouthServices (youth_services), email rslike@clarionfreelibrary.org, or come into the library and ask for the Youth Services Librarian Rose Slike.

Not following this server's guidelines...

Youth Librarian, Rose Slike, may send you a direct message if a post you made falls outside of these guidelines. This direct message will allow both you and Ms. Rose to have an open, honest conversation about the situation and possible actions.

If you choose not to adhere to these guidelines, CFL may temporarily limit your account's access to the server.
